3. Cardarelli K (PI), Barr M, Luecking CT, Brewer D, Swanson M, Mullins J. 03/01/2022 - 2/28/2026. Laurel HARVEST: Helping Appalachia Restore a Vibrant food Environment for Self Sufficiency Together. United States Department of Agriculture/National Institute of Food and Agriculture, 2022-68015-336947. $969,720 (Nationally competitive).
This project aims to improve food security and nutritional health outcomes by enhancing healthy eating in a rural Kentucky community, thereby supporting a pathway to self-sufficiency and reducing obesity. Our team will employ a community-based participatory approach to identify and adapt evidence-based healthy eating interventions at multiple levels of the socioecologic model, assuring seamless integration with Cooperative Extension programming.
 - Role: Co-Investigator (5% FTE) – Direct process evaluation throughout planning and implementation. Responsible for TBD.
2. White C (PI), Gustafson A, Luecking CT. 07/01/2020 - 06/30/2022. Food Service Guidelines and Early Care and Education. Kentucky Cabinet for Health and Family Services, Department of Public Health. Subcontract of Center for Disease Control and Prevention State Physical Activity and Nutrition Program. $5,000,000 (Nationally competitive).
This scope project aims to implement evidence-based policy, system, and environmental changes for obesity prevention within early care and education programs in Kentucky. Go NAPSACC is one of the evidence-based interventions used.
 - Role: Consultant (10% FTE) – Facilitate contract with Go NAPSACC, support recruitment and work of Go NAPSACC consultants, support dissemination efforts to early care and education programs, analyze and report data regarding adoption and implementation. Responsible for $73,950.
1. Ward DS (PI), Vaughn AE, Ammerman AS, Hales D, Curran GM, Studts CR, Powell BJ, Trogon JG, Willis E, Luecking CT. 08/15/2018 - 07/31/2022. A hybrid effectiveness-implementation trial of Go NAPSACC: a childcare-based obesity prevention program. Subaward of National Institute of Health/National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute through the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, 5R01HL137929. $2,988,647 (Nationally competitive).
This type 3 hybrid-effectiveness design with a randomized controlled trial is evaluating the impact of Go NAPSACC on child care centers' practices as well as the reach, adoption, implementation,

3. Luecking CT (PI). 06/01/2021 – 06/30/2022. Formative work for health promotion in early childhood in Kentucky. College of Agriculture, Food and Environment Research Activity Award, University of Kentucky. $30,000.
Funding to support a time-sensitive project is to collect critical baseline data to support an extramural grant application to fund prospective evaluation of the equity of implementation and impact of new health and safety regulations for child care in Kentucky and to support formative work to inform development of a new program to support nutrition for expecting families and primary caregivers of infants and toddlers who have limited resources.
 - Role: Principal Investigator. Oversee financial, administrative, and scientific conduct of projects. Responsible for $30,000.
2. Luecking CT (PI). 11/15/2021 - 06/30/2022. Undergraduate research experiences in the SNACK Lab. College of Agriculture, Food and Environment Research Activity Award, University of Kentucky. $2,400.
Funding for two undergraduate research experiences with the SNACK (Supporting Nutritious and Active Children in Kentucky) Lab. One experience will support formative work with community partners across Kentucky to inform development of a new program to support nutrition for expecting families and primary caregivers of infants and toddlers who have limited resources. The other experience will support recruitment and data collection for an ongoing pilot study to establish a cohort of child care centers and children across Kentucky to evaluate the equity and impact of new regulations regarding nutrition, physical activity, and screen in child care.
1. Luecking CT (PI), Rous B, Williams C, Dlugonski D, Adatorwovor R, Ingram R, Ward DS. 06/01/2021 - 05/31/2022. Evaluating the impact and equity of translating new state-level policies into obesity prevention practices in child care centers in Kentucky. Center for Health Equity Transformation, University of Kentucky. $25,000 (Internally competitive).
The objective of this time-sensitive project is to collect critical baseline data to support an extramural grant application to fund prospective evaluation of the equity of implementation and impact of new health and safety regulations for child care in Kentucky. Our longer-term goal to identify unintended consequences of new regulations and strategies to support equitable translation of obesity prevention policies for children into practice.
 - Role: Principal Investigator. Oversee financial, administrative, and scientific conduct of projects. Responsible for $25,000.

County Agent In-Service Trainings (New Content Development: 4; Content Delivery: 5)

Family and Consumer Sciences Extension heavily utilizes the train-the-trainer model for program delivery to maximize program offerings and clientele reached, due to the limited number of Extension Specialists serving in Family and Consumer Sciences. Since 2019, I have developed programmatic content for 5 agent trainings. Trainings were delivered virtually and face to face in multiple locations to serve all areas of the state. All in-service trainings have an evaluation instrument. The mean results reported in Table 1 are for trainings that used a common evaluation instrument. Evaluation results for in-service training programs are positive.

Table 3. Mean Results Agent In-Service Trainings (Measured on a 5.0 Scale, n=90)

Extension Homemaker Leader Lessons (Total: 2)

Within FCS Extension at the University of Kentucky, a train-the-trainer model is used for program dissemination. Extension leader lessons are developed by state-level specialists for county agents, county homemaker groups, and other Extension partner organizations. Extensions Specialists are highly encouraged to develop one new Extension Homemaker Leader Lesson each year. These lessons are pilot-tested and peer-reviewed prior to county use.

Initial COVID-19 Response (Total: 11)

During the early phase of the COVID-19 pandemic, (March 2020 – April 2021), state-level specialists developed and delivered programming to support Cooperative Extension agents and constituents of the Commonwealth. During that time, I developed and/or delivered the following:

Live, online program delivery

These 30 – 45-minute standalone programs were designed to offer continuity in delivery of evidence-based information and programming from Cooperative Extension. Sessions were offered live through Zoom and Facebook Live. Family and Consumer Science agents could advertise and host virtual watch parties for their community members. Programs were recorded and archived on the public facing Family and Consumer Science Facebook and YouTube pages. Additional resources, including information releases and activities, were provided to accompany support live programming.
